DEPUTY CLERK & MASTER

MOTION

Now come the parties, Patricia Marene Hall Coomer and Lewis Fay Coomer, by and through counsel, and would jointly move this Court to continue trial of this case which is currently set for April 25, 2001. In support of their joint Motion, the parties would show to the Court that party depositions were taken on March 1, 2001, and the depositions transcripts were not received by counsel until early April, 2001. There are a good number of late-filed exhibits to the depositions which have not yet been produced and which may require the copying of bank records. Until the requested records have been copied and produced and an opportunity for supplemental depositions, this matter will not be ready for trial.

The Court should note that a delay in the trial of this cause should not prejudice either party, as both are employed, live in separate residences, and are financially secure.

Wherefore, the parties jointly move the Court to continue the trial of this cause to be reset on the Court's calendar.

Respectfully submitted.
