MILLINGTON LAWYER TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED

On August 19, 2002, the Supreme Court of Tennessee issued an order summarily and temporarily suspending Robert C. Rosenbush's license to practice law, upon finding that Mr. Rosenbush had failed to answer the Board of Professional Responsibility's requests for information regarding a complaint of misconduct. Section 4.3 of Supreme Court Rule 9 provides for the immediate summary suspension of an attorney's license to practice law in cases of failing to respond to the Board of Professional Responsibility. Disciplinary Counsel filed a petition with the Supreme Court alleging that Mr. Rosenbush had failed to respond to the Board's requests for information regarding a complaint.

The August 19, 2002, order precludes Mr. Rosenbush from accepting any new cases effective August 19, 2002. Mr. Rosenbush must cease representing existing clients effective September 18, 2002. After September 18, 2002, Mr. Rosenbush shall not use any indicia of lawyer, legal assistant, or law clerk nor maintain a presence where the practice of law is conducted.

The order requires Mr. Rosenbush to notify by registered or certified mail all clients being represented in pending matters, as well as co-counsel and opposing counsel of the Supreme Court's order suspending his law license. Section 18 of Supreme Court Rule 9 requires Mr. Rosenbush to deliver to all clients any papers or property to which they are entitled.

This suspension remains in effect until dissolution or modification by the Supreme Court. Mr. Rosenbush may for good cause request dissolution or modification of the suspension by petition to the Supreme Court.
