From: Owner of shop between City Market and Gianelli's at 2211 E. Capitol

Called to say that she saw 2 rats outside. There is food on the ground from the 2 restaurants on either side of her. She has mice in her basement all the time and would not like to start having rats.

- 12-8-03 Garbage and Rubbish Found. No evidence of rats seen, but rats also seen by employee of City Market. J.F.
- 12-11-03 Much debris removed, more clean up needed. Talked to Jeff of City Market and manager of Napoleon's.
- 12-15-03 More debris removed. Telephoned Jeff Swanson regarding not placing bag of garbage and rubbish on the ground over the week-end. Also told him to have his pest control operator place an exterior rat bait station. J.F.
- 12-18-03 No garbage or rubbish on ground behind The City Market. J.F.
- 12-22-03 Rat bait stations placed. One loaf of bread on ground and some scattered paper. Talked to Jeff Swanson about constant clean up. Also talked to a delivery truck driver about throwing shrink wrap in a dumpster. J.F.
- 12-22-03 Telephoned Manager of Gianelli's Pizza, told him to remove dozens of plastic lun trays in back of Restaurant. J.F.
